

I fully and completely support the removal of the morse testing requirement from the requirements of the amateur radio service.